

Here are the projects that received Development Funding in 2016:

Agency	Project Title
Royal College of Physicians of Ireland	Development of online components for mandatory courses
Royal College of Physicians of Ireland	PILOT: anatomic pathology/histopathology online decision support and educational system, Elsevier ExpertPath, and online educational product
Faculty of Radiology	Development and implementation of online assessment tools and database for competence-based radiology training
Faculty of Radiology	Educationalist support
Faculty of Radiology	Radiology training programme strategic review: multi-source feedback
Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland	New Academic and Education Building – National Clinical Training and Simulation Centre
College of Anaesthetists	Fellowship in clinical education and leadership
College of Anaesthetists	Mobile application with a web-based platform to support competency-based feedback and assessment in clinical sites
College of Psychiatrists of Ireland	Development of course prospectus and course materials
Irish College of General Practitioners	Tools for the recognition of prior learning
West Northwest Intern Training Network and NUI Galway School of Medicine	Integrating evidence into the internship outcomes (EPA) proposal
West Northwest Intern Training Network and NUI Galway School of Medicine	“NEUROTRANSMITTER” Promoting clinical engagement in innovation among junior doctors
Mid-West Intern Training Network and UL Hospitals Group	Development of an ultrasound training module and laboratory for interns in the Mid-West training network
South Intern Training Network and University College Cork	A pilot study of baseline intern post performance and targeted improvement strategies in Intern Network South
Irish Committee on Emergency Medicine Training and RCSI	Development of formal ultrasound training for emergency medicine trainees in Ireland
Irish College of Ophthalmologists	e-Interactive classroom for training in ophthalmology
Irish College of Ophthalmologists	Implementing flexible training in ophthalmology and retaining trained ophthalmologists in the workforce